

Extremely Successful Book

Comedian Matt Danger Stares tries his hand at writing and comes up with a satirical, witty look at contemporary life. From his unique predictions of the future and creative Craigslist ads they way they should be written to the Coats of Burlington and a choose your own details form letter for any occasion, Extremely Successful Book is destined to be a . . . well . . . Extremely Successful Book! Matt is a comedy writer/actor from Portland, Oregon. he offers his audiences dry, satirical and absurdist delivery through his blend off-the-cuff humor. After working as a musician for the last 10 years, at 29, Matt has observed and speculated on more people than he would care to admit and has listened to and lived tales of heartbreak through his adventures both on and off the road. Offering his perspective through a genuine yet snarky brand of influence and imitation, Matt dares to put to voice and word what few people are willing to admit. Refocusing his efforts on comedy and writing while finishing his education at Portland State University with a Bachelors degree in communication, Matt is simultaneously releasing more albums and comedy videos. Matt now resides in the quiet landscape of Portland and occasionally can be seen landing his personal dirigible at an undisclosed airfield with peculiar women during the equinoctial night. Matt is divorced and has one child, his daughter Allora Lee Stares, age four, and really enjoys a good batch of English muffins!
