

Iron Man by Neivelle Tan

Neivelle Tans Iron Man is a compelling true account of a young offenders first involvement with street crimes, his repeated return to destructive behaviour and, finally, the decisive moments of his jail sentence in Singapores Changi Prison as one of the most wanted criminals in the underground gangster world. With inimitable directness and honesty, Neivelles autobiography reveals the spirit of youthful restlessness and its defiant, anti-social expressions. He provides strong testament that the self-damaging behaviour of youthful rebellion is rooted in the most elemental and powerful of human needs love, attention and acceptance. Neivelle recounts organised brawls, extortions, knifings, gange retaliations, police man-hunts, canings, prison fights and break-outs that had already marked his life by the time he was 18. The drama of these harrowing episodes is interwoven with poignant insights on the brotherhood of young gangsters who search futilely for meaning in their codes of honour and enforced loyalties. Above all, Iron Man is a triumphant story that offers hope, faith and empowerment to those who face despair or have been felled by adversity. It is ultimately a story of how one man literally stumbles upon God and the transforming experience that follows, radically changing the course of his life and that of everyone who crosses his path.
