Samples of oilcloth must not exceed 30 centimeters (about 12 inches) in either dimension. Samples of rope, metal threads, or wooden moldings must not exceed 8 centimeters (about 3 inches) in length. Samples of wine, liquors, and similar beverages must come in containers of a capacity not exceeding half a liter (0.52 quart). Jewelry and plate of any metal must be mutilated. Duties on Advertising Matter.--Advertising matter is subject to the following rates of duty per kilo (2.2046 pounds) gross weight: Advertisements on paper or cardboard, with or without oleographs, and with or without cardboard frames, 2.04 cents; calendars in pamphlet form or for walls, 1.02 cents; calendars on sheets, 2.04 cents; advertisements on tin plate, 17.34 cents; on enameled iron, 20.4 cents; on copper, bronze, brass, or similar metals, 51 cents. Catalogues are admitted free of duty. Commercial Travelers Tax.--While there is no Government tax, a municipal tax is assessed in certain cities. The following are some of the taxes: Cartagena and Medellin, $10 to $20 for the calendar year, payable into the municipal treasury. License is issued by the alcalde, or mayor, on presentation of the treasurer's receipt. Bogota: Some time ago a tax of $25 per month was fixed for each house represented by a commercial traveler. Matter was contested. Passports.--No traveler should visit Colombia without a passport from the United States Government. This should be taken to the consular representative of Colombia at the port of departure for visa, authorizing the traveler's entry into Colombia. For a traveler who is not an American citizen, application should be made to the Colombian consul for a Colombian passport. A ph...
