

Fatal Trust (Crimescape Book 19)

(A 118-page True Crime Short with 23 photographs) Josette, a pretty, vivacious, and personable twelve-year-old, is angry with her mother over a delay in driving her to a girlfriends house. When her mother returns home from work, Josette is not there or at her girlfriends house. Friends, neighbors, and family members mount a diligent search and talk to people who might have seen her, but they learn very little. Nobody knows anything about what happened to Josette so it seems. Police learn that Josettes dislike of her mothers boyfriend caused family tension, and her estranged father lived thousands of miles away. Josette had told her closest friend she wanted to run away. A retired teacher swears she sees Josette in a mall department store. Police are sympathetic, but their investigation is limited: They see Josette as just another runaway youngster. Finally, a shocking discovery demands that police reexamine their theories of Josettes disappearance. As the truth slowly unfolds, the tragedy deepens. ABOUT THE AUTHOR (1900 characters including spaces (author and series combined)) Kevin F. McMurray is an investigative reporter, journalist, and book author. His articles have appeared in The New York Times, the Sunday Times of London, Mens Journal, Time Warners Crime Library, and numerous other publications. He is the author of four St. Martins True Crime titles including Desire Turned Deadly, If You Really Loved Me, A Family Cursed, and The True Story of a Beautiful Girl, Her Teenage Sweetheart and the Love that Ended in Murder. He is also the author of Deep Descent and Dark Descent, historical-adventure nonfiction works about notorious shipwrecks. ABOUT THE SERIES A collection of compelling short nonfiction crime eBooks from leading independent eBook publisher RosettaBooks, Crimescape provides riveting storytelling that puts its publications at the top of the true crime genre. Crimescape authors are not only the best true crime authors in the business many of whom have seen their books made into major motion pictures. They're also police detectives, forensic professionals, criminal psychologists, and investigative reporters. Their inside expertise brings readers unique insight into the murderous mind and some of the world's most mysterious and fascinating cases. What makes for a good true-crime story? Interesting characters, an engrossing plot, situations that often teeter between life and death. But here's the MacGuffin about true crime: What you're reading actually happened. Sometimes truth really is more compelling than fiction. And that's why you will enjoy reading Crimescape's true crime series.
