

Henry Seriake Dickson: A Daniel Came to Judgment

Henry Seriake Dickson came into this world, 28th day of January, the day more than 834 great leaders and personality were born. They, like Dickson were all Daniels who brought justice to the people and dragged down corrupt untouchable rich Shylocks. Most of which emerged from the least likely places, some in the darkest of times and brought light to the people, but Henry Dickson had something more. He has royal blood running in his veins being born into the house of Mr. Nanaye Dickson of Orua, a descendant of the famous King Kpadia Royal House of Tarakiri Kingdom. Though he is a wise fearless judge whose courage and wisdom in judgment elucidated his education, career and life. As legal professional, he proved to be brave and hardy, likewise as national legislator. Henry Dickson is a leader, born to be, graced to lead and lead well, as typified in his life and career. Anyone can readily gleam inspiration from the life of this young leader. It seems his life was strangely orchestrated and punctuated with one brilliant decision to another. As a little boy, he saw ahead, as a shy young man, he served and planned with the elders and as a young leader, he identified with the people.
