

Trying to go with the tide: Unleash Odyssey

Hi my name is Matt Stonier, I am new to the writing books realm, although I have always wanted to write something, not for the sake of it but to have a reason for it. There is a cluster of thoughts when it comes to reasoning and understanding what is underlying the life that we live today. As we adjust to constant, I would like to use another word other than change! So we have a constant flow of activities coming to us, it is open to reason that we should contemplate why somethings are just so damn hard to do. What happens in Part 1 is I give the back drop to my earlier years, but sometimes jump to recent times, keeping the reader on their toes, you start to see an aspect in life, that we might not normally. I believe if you can simply identify this dimension in life, you can become more at peace and able to move forward. So what I am talking about, is it starts to heat up in Part 2, where I hit botom shelf of homeless and penniless. When it does not go well.....You want to blame someone, or something, it is quite natural. Lets look at the dimension of whats going on here, what moves and flows, and yet can not be seen...This is small explanation of what I am trying to get to reveal in my biography-Trying to go with the tide, ebook on kindle. Please, I would really like some reviews. Kind regards Matt
