

Letting Go: a true story

Romantic, emotional, with adventure and trauma, on an eventful journey to Stockholm, Sweden (a memoir). Reviews Letting Go is a touching and gentle tale of friendship and magical coincidence. The reader is lifted by the storyline and taken on an emotional and geographical journey through close and caring relationships. --Sarah Lennox-Hilton Just wanted to say how refreshing it was to read something so sweet, and untainted by bad language & traumatic situations. I really enjoyed the book. It was light-hearted, honest and easy to read. --Lesley Summerhayes I am a fast reader and read this book in one morning, turning the pages to see what was going to happen next! Is there a sequel? Christine Couldn't put it down, related to so many things in this book. Falling in love can be like a madness, if you have been there you will know. I enjoyed the journey to Sweden, and across the country. Thank you for such a descriptive visit to beautiful Stockholm! R. North
