

By the Seat of our Pants

By The Seat of Our Pants humorously takes the reader on the many and varied travel adventures experienced by the author, Mom, and her husband, Dad. From the vicious seas of Alaskan salmon fishing to the wandering streets and villages in Europe, the reader will experience the Devils Highway New Years Eve in France and the Christmas Markets in Germany. You will learn about bare-bosom sunbathing and bull fighting in Spain and on to many adventures in Italy and France. But most importantly to know, they were lost most of the time. Her back of map-reading skills assured them of lost and misguided travels. They rarely had hotel reservations thus were always subject to sleeping in the back of the car or running out of gas. Fortunately, they never did, but were mighty close a few times.
