

The Murder of Blanche Lamont (Expanded, Annotated)

She lay naked and dead in a church belfry for eleven days. A suspect was quickly apprehended and in the exciting trial that followed, San Francisco prosecutors wove a compelling case for serial murder in this historical true crime thriller. Blanche Lamont was a 20-year-old woman from Montana. Too trusting and too sweet to die this way. But did Theo Durrant murder her? It was called the crime of the century when it was tried in 1895. Here is the trial transcript and the cold, hard evidence by one of the prosecutors. Included is the evidence against Durrant for the murder of Minnie Williams, for which he was never tried. For the first time, this long out-of-print volume is available as an affordable, well-formatted book for e-readers and smartphones.
