

Tomnoddys Tomfoolery

Reduce pain with laughter you grumpy fucker. So go ahead and allow your subconscious to speak in tongues fueled not by religious ardor but a response intuitively made to social and linguistic cues. Laughter is comprised of a series of short vowel-like syllables written as ha-ha, hee-hee or ho-ho. These are integral parts of the Universal Human Vocabulary and are made and recognized by all cultures on the planet. Undeniable, concrete proof that we can reduce stress and pain through laughter remains an unrealized but reasonable possibility. Uncle Casey suggests that while we wait for the incontrovertible verification...lets laugh and assist its primary goal: bringing people together. Therefore, a horse walks into a bar and the barman says, Why the long face? ... This humor does not reflect actual feelings or opinions of either myself, my company, my extra testicle or my fucking goat; dont quote me on that; dont quote me on anything; Copyright (C) 2012 Tomnoddy Media; all rights reserved.
