

Will Americans Elect a Mormon President? Why Religion Will Not Keep Mitt Romney Out of the White House in 2008

According to a Los Angeles Times / Bloomberg poll, 37% of Americans would not vote for a Mormon Presidential candidate. That statistic represents a major obstacle for Mitt Romney, a Mormon candidate in 2008. Niles A. Fuller explains why religion will not prevent the former Governor of Massachusetts from achieving his Presidential ambitions. Along the way, Fuller provides insights into Mormon beliefs and practices that will affect Romneys candidacy. For Republican voters, this is a must-read book.
